The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) of the IQAC

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

SWOT Analysis:

1. Strengths:

- Independent, spacious and very sophisticated College building, equipped with all required infrastructure and facilities;
- Reaching out to the needy section of the society through regular legal aid programs;
- Providing on hand experience to the students with respect to the real court procedure, through moot exercise in our well equipped moot-court hall, court visits, study tours by visit to prisons, forensic laboratories, High court. Mediation centres on a regular basis;
- Proper training for the students to attend the national and State level moot competitions, various other curricular and sports events;
- Girls hostel facility;
- Maintenance of healthy students-teachers ratio;
- Sophisticated library with extraordinary stock of reading materials. Law journals, reporters and internet facility in the computer lab;
- Enrolment of the law students into the profession as advocates is relatively high;
- Number of admissions of socially and educationally backward, SC and ST students is so high;
- A very supportive and encouraging Management Body.

2. Weaknesses:

- Less scope for diversification in the delivery of academic knowledge;
- Lack of English language knowledge among the students (are basically from the rural backward) indeed affecting a bit on their academic performance;
- Since the majority of the students are hailing from the remote village areas are seriously facing lack of transport facility;
- Lack of man power.

3. Opportunities:

- Students can lead their professional lives independently;
- Students became capable of taking up judicial exams;
- Law students will contribute towards legally engineering the society;
- Globalization has indeed resulted the graduates in law work in the MNCs and wide opportunities abroad.

4. Threats:

- Unscientific decision by the State government by opening up unnecessarily several; law colleges in the district, threatening the interest of well performing already existing law colleges;
- Students who complete the law degree with inadequate knowledge and skills pose great threat to the society.

8. Plans of institution for next year

- Necessary arrangements and preparations to appear the NAAC Re-
accreditation for Cycle-2;
- Access the progress of works of various Institutional internal Committees and their documentation works;
