

Student Satisfaction Survey
Evaluation of Students Appraisal on Teachers Performance
(For the Year : 2020 -21)

A meeting was held on 19.07.2021, Monday, called by the Principal to evaluate the students appraisal of teachers. The feedback forms were taken up for the verification of each of the faculty and the Principal made note of the remarks and scores given by the students for each teacher and also took the separate note of matters of concerns raised by the students in their feedback.

Thus the result of the feedback was as follows;

- (a) Students are in fact satisfied by the efforts of the teachers in taking online/virtual classes so regularly and convincingly;
- (b) Students satisfaction was reflected through their feedback about the soft study materials PPT slide materials provided to the students, has helped them a lot since they didn't had the opportunity to have the college library facility during COVID -19 pandemic.
- (c) Students have shown their satisfaction over teachers preparation for the classes, punctuality in conducting classes, planning and completion of the syllabus by time;
- (d) Displeasure was found among the students in general about the impossibility on their part due to the pandemic to consult their teacher the seek the guidance and clarifications on the subjects been taught in the online classes.

The teachers could make the serious note of the feedback given by the students for their future purposes. The Vice Chairman, Sri.C.R.Chandrasheker Iyer who was present during the meeting expressed his satisfaction about the institution and the teachers efforts during the hard time of pandemic in delivering the things so satisfactorily.
