

Student Satisfaction Survey

Evaluation of Students Appraisal on Teachers Performance

Academic Year – 2022-23

The special meeting was convened on 18.10.2023, Wednesday by the Vice-Chairman/Director of the Institution to evaluate the students' appraisal on teachers' performance. The feedback forms were taken up verification of each of the faculty. Principal and the Vice-Chairman made note of the remarks and scores given by the students and took the separate note of matters of concerns raised by the students in their feedback. The following is the feedback report of the Student Satisfaction Survey and the overall question wise analysis report for the year 2022-23.

- Students are in fact are satisfied by the efforts of the teachers in satisfying the students about the subjects more effectively and convincingly;
- Student satisfaction was reflected through their feedback about the supply of study materials / PPT slide materials to the students;
- Students have shown their satisfaction about the punctuality, planning and completion of the syllabus on time;
- Students seemed to be very convinced and satisfied by the use of ICT tools in the class room exercise by the teachers more effectively;
- Students are also satisfied with the remedial classes and mentor's role in attending the students' academic and other concerns;
- Students are seemed to have the concern about clarity of presentation, expression, language and the voice among the few teachers;
- Students had the concern about the availability of the teachers after the class hours for needful discussion on subjects and others;
- Students have pointed out the need for active learning methodologies like, group discussion, tutorials, assignments, seminars and field visits;
- It was clearly reflected in the feedback by the students that the overall conduct of examinations and evaluation process was so transparent and the assignments are graded so fairly.

The Vice-Chairman and the Principal highlighted the outcomes of the Student Satisfaction Survey during the meeting. Each of the teachers could make the specific note of the feedback analysis. It was advised during the meeting that the faculty shall take the serious note the student feedback and try to improve the areas where their weaknesses are pointed out. Similarly, the need for rigorous conduct of seminars and scope for group discussion and field visits was emphasized during the meeting. These were few of the outcomes of the evaluation of the Student Satisfaction Survey for the year 2022-23.
