Orientation and legal literacy Program Summary

Held on: 12/09/2018

Venue: College Auditorium

Time: 11-30 A.M.

The goals of the orientation program are to create student's familiarity with the institution's regulations and academic standards and to acquaint the students with their classmates.

The objective of legal literacy is to create more robust system in order to develop a community of informed citizens.

Panel Discussion on the topic "Euthanasia" was conducted on 13.04.2018.

In India, euthanasia is a crime. Section 309 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC) deals with the attempt to commit suicide and Section 306 of the IPC deals with abetment of suicide – both actions are punishable. Only those who are brain dead can be taken off life support with the help of family members. Likewise, the Honorable Supreme Court is also of the view that the right to life guaranteed by Article 21 of the constitution does not include the right to die. The court held that Article 21 is a provision guaranteeing protection of life and personal liberty and by no stretch of imagination can extinction of life be read into it. However, various pro-euthanasia organizations, the most prominent among them being the Death with Dignity Foundation, keep on fighting for legalization of an individual's right to choose his own death.

A major development took place in this field on 7 March 2011. The Supreme Court, in a landmark judgment, allowed passive euthanasia. Refusing mercy killing of Aruna Shaubag, lying in a vegetative state in a Mumbai Hospital for 37 years, a two-judge bench laid down a set of tough guidelines under which passive euthanasia can be legalized through a high-court monitored mechanism. The court further stated that parents, spouses, or close relatives of the patient can make such a plea to the high court. The chief justices of the high courts, on receipt of such a plea, would constitute a bench to decide it. The bench in turn would appoint a committee of at least three renowned doctors to advise them on the matter.

In our society, the palliative care and quality of life issues in patients with terminal illnesses like advanced cancer and AIDS have become an important concern for clinicians. Parallel to this concern has arisen another controversial issue-euthanasia or "mercy -killing" of terminally ill patients. Proponents of physician-assisted suicide (PAS) feel that an individual's right to autonomy automatically entitles him to choose a painless death. The opponents feel that a physician's role in the death of an individual violates the central tenet of the medical profession. Moreover, undiagnosed depression and possibility of social coercion in people asking for euthanasia put a further question mark on the ethical principles underlying such an act. These concerns have led to strict guidelines for implementing PAS. Assessment of the mental state of the person consenting to PAS becomes mandatory and here, the role of the psychiatrist becomes pivotal. Although considered illegal in our country, PAS has several advocates in the form of voluntary organizations like “death with dignity” foundation. This has got a fillip in the recent Honourable Supreme Court Judgment in the Aruna Shaunbag case. What remains to be seen is how long it takes before this sensitive issue rattles the Indian legislature.

PRINCIPAL

Students actively participated in the Panel Discussion and presented their opinions on the basis their research on the topic. Dr.Palaksha.K.H, President, Tavaru Charitable Trust, Hassan, was the Resource Person during the panel discussion. Dr.V. Srinivasa, Peincipal and Sri.C.R.Chandrashekar Iyer, Vice-Chairman were present in the program.

International Yoga Day Celebration

Yoga brings the body and mind together and is built on three main elements - movements, breathing & meditation. Yoga has many physical & mental health benefits including improved posture, flexibility, strength, balance and body awareness.

Our institution holds International yoga day celebration every year as in Sept-2014 India's PM Mister Narendra Modi in his UN address, suggested an annual day of yoga on 21 June - as it is the longest day of the year in the Northern Hemisphere and shares a special significance in many parts of the world.
