01. The Respondent, Smt. Meera Sah, is the mother of Shri. Rahul who was 22 years of age at the time of his death

2. The Army personnel, engaged in locating and detrimating the hideouts of the militants who had infiltrated into the territory of the border State of Osson and unleashed a reign of terror apprehended Rahul, who allegedly had links with the militants and was assisting them in their nefarious activities because of the threat of instant death held out by the militants.

On the December 2023 the army on the basis of the clues and hints provided by Rahul, launched an operation to flush out the militants and in the encounter that ensued, Rahul and a few of the soldiers were killed. The body of Rahul was handed over to his mother on the 17th of December, 2023.

Statement of fact

Janakidevi v. State of Sirinadu and others.

Kaladurga is a historical city and also a district headquarter in the State of Sirinadu. At the outskirts of Kaladurga city, there is a small hill by name Ragimathi. A small bear was found in that hill. This bear was troubling the farmers by destroying their standing crops in the field. However, there were no incidents of attack on human beings.

Grieving farmers submitted a memorandum to the Sirinadu government to protect their crops. The Sirinadu government directed the forest Department to take necessary action in this regard.

Large number of people gathered near the Travellers Bungalow to the city and kept in the primers of Travellers, Bungalow which is in the heart of of the Kaladurga City their intention was to take the bear to the Mysore Zoo next day.

Smt Janakidevi w/o Ramanna Nayaka filed a suit against the Srirangapatna State and forest Department before the Kaladurga Civil court (Senior Division) claiming a sum of ₹ 10.00 Lakhs by way of damages.

The contention of the Janakidevi is that the forest Department has not only caused public nuisance in keeping the cage in the premise of Travellers Bungalow. Janakidevi pleaded that the forest Department has failed to keep the dangerous animals like Bear from escaping and hence they are strictly liable.

They had also pleaded that since the bear is not a dangerous animal, the doctrine of strict liabilities is not applicable to the case on hand the defendant also submitted that the said act of the forest Department

Statement of fact

Kishwar Das wished to see his daughter Kunkum highly educated and employed in government service. He was also particular that his daughter should be married to a suitable highly educated person well settled in life. Kunkum was a very beautiful girl of 20 years. One day Kishwar Das was approached by Panduranga Rao, the father of Bharathesh Rao. Panduranga Rao told Kishwardas that his son was a graduate.

Bharatesh Rao wrote a letter asking Kunkum to come immediately on the receipt of the letter. Kunkum came to her marriage home. That day Bharatesh Rao forced her to write a resignation letter and he sent it to the manager of the school. The next day, Kunkum wrote another letter and he sent it to the manager of the school. The next day Kunkum wrote another letter to the Kumkum lived in the company of Bharatesh Rao for nearly three months. During this period she came to know that Bharatesh Rao was additional on this matter both used to quarrel each other. Then to her horror, she learned from a woman, a neighbour that Bharatesh Rao was having an affair with a lady who is a typist in his office.

The next day, the postman gave Bharatesh Rao a letter which was addressed to Kumkum. He opened it and came to know that her resignation was not accepted so far by the school authorities. Logalla, the author, of the letter asked Kumkum to come and joint duty as early as possible and mentioned that he would eagerly look forward to see her. Bharatesh Rao was not anything more than that. That day Bharatesh Rao came that her cry was heard by some neighbours. He repeatedly reminded her that she would never see Logalla or the school again.
